How to proceed

1. For business customers, enter the company name and VAT ID and, if applicable, the industry (12.1); for fleets, check the customer constellation (12.2).
2. Select campaigns or special conditions only if the eligibility described is met (12.3).
3. For deviations from the standard, submit a special case request with a comprehensible justification (12.4).

! The customer group "KAM-managed key accounts" is to be used only for individual price requests, i.e. for KAM-managed customers or for FS 140+.

4. The request is assigned to the responsible Dealer or processor (12.5) and validated, approved or rejected by MO or Market (12.6).
5. Use internal comments for coordination and external comments for feedback to the customer (12.7).
6. Manage customer accounts and special cases in the Customer Account Center (12.8).

Roles and prerequisites

Roles involved

- Dealer: special case request, campaign selection, comments
- MO/Market: validation, approval or rejection
- KAM: managed key accounts and individual price requests

Prerequisites

- Customer group "Business customer" or "KAM-managed key accounts" is selected correctly (Chapter 4.1)
- Campaign eligibility is given as described
- Justification for the special case is available

Checklist before completion

- ☐ Customer group and additional details correct
- ☐ Campaign eligibility checked
- ☐ Special case justified and submitted
- ☐ Comment visibility observed

Notes and pitfalls

- Special approvals always trigger an MO check (Chapters 6.5 and 9).
- External comments are visible to the customer; do not enter internal information.
- Campaigns are maintained by the Market (Chapter 14.13).

Frequently asked questions and answers

- When do I need a special case request? When conditions, customer constellation or product deviate from the standard (12.4).
- Who decides on the special case? MO or Market after validation; you see the result in the application and in the comments (12.6).
- What is the Customer Account Center? The area for managing customer accounts, relationships and special cases (12.8).
